MODERN HOME

Modernism or postmodernism? decoration as it is nowadays called, is gaining ground. It expresses the spirit of our times. It brings into the home the smooth flowing lines of a streamlined age. The Charlotte modern home is an idealistic example of the new school. Every room is designed for living and has been treated in several streams of modern or postmodern decoration. Significantly many of Charlotte leading decorators working independently have chosen line for many of the items in the home.

You'll find it in these different sections of the living room, or the hall: kitchen and bathroom. Domestic Larders happen to be particularly appropriate for modern interiors where the meaning of tables plays an important part—but it can be used with equally telling effect in the decorative scheme of almost any period. And whatever period or decorative scheme you prefer, remember that Domestic Larders are easy to clean, it's readily spray and will last a lifetime.
